

(Donor Name and Address)

Dear (Donor Name),

The Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology (MBMG) Archives accepts donation offers by email, telephone or letter (see contact information below).

The types of information collected by the MBMG Archives include, but is not limited to:

Mining and geologic-related maps, books, reports, photographs, geophysical logs, aerial photos, core samples, survey and mining claim documents, field notes, correspondence and mineral samples.

We ask that you provide a description of the materials that you wish to donate and describe the material's media (letters, memos, handwritten notes, photographs, videotapes, DVDs, CDs, maps, etc.) and the quantity (number of boxes, folders, etc.)

Donors must sign an MBMG Deed of Gift form that formally transfers the collection's ownership, including intellectual property rights, to the Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology. The Montana Tech Foundation administers all donations to the MBMG. The collection(s) reside at the MBMG.

Please note that the Montana Tech or MBMG Archives staff cannot provide monetary appraisals for donated materials. If you would like to have your items appraised for tax or other purposes prior to donating them, please contact a professional appraiser.
